The Seniors Present The 1956 Trojan

The class of 1956 is very happy to dedicate this year's "Trojan" to our two teachers, Mrs. Inez Curry and Mrs. Bonnie Kendall.

Mrs. Curry came here in 1955, and has helped direct our plays, our annual, and has been a wonderful guide to everyone.

As a class, we wish to express our sincere gratitude for the many splendid things she has done. The hours she has spent with us will long be remembered throughout our years to come.

Mrs. Kendall entered our school in 1954, and has directed our annual and newspaper staff. She has been a loyal friend and helper to all the high school students.

Our class feels honored to have two such devoted sponsors and we wish to express our thanks.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It was April; the days were warm, but very short for the Seniors. I (Iris Cogar) was worried about the future for us; so I decided to send for a gypsy fortune-teller to read my tea leaves. This is what she saw: a black leaf and in it were Grace and Nelson Depoy, living in a well-established neighborhood. Then a curled up leaf appeared bearing Iris Metheney as a hairdresser in the Dave Miller Shoppe. Suddenly a red leaf swirled holding Pat Rowley knitting and petting her kittens. Earlene Knotts, Nora Parsons, and Dessie Nichols were sitting on a green leaf listening to a lecturer at O.U. Then a navy-blue leaf sailed by with Charles Taylor and Jeff Massie as Admirals on the U.S.S. OCEANLINER. Pat Starkey and Mary Lou Snodgrass as comedians on the Bob Hope Show, occupied a very gay leaf. An angry leaf seemed to be fighting something - Ronnie Williams, a bachelor in Beverly Hills, shoving the women away from him. A brown leaf appeared with Marion Smith, Patty Murphy, Don Jeffers and Dan Bernard - all married with each at the head of a happy household. A yellow leaf bounced against the cup and surely enough there were Dick Holbert and Bob Pierce in the ring with Morlin Dobbs as referee. A white leaf batted its way through till I saw Jim Wright playing baseball in the World Series. A thin crinkly leaf, brought Tom Taylor and Lowell Marshall, dancing instructors at an Arthur Murray Studio. All these leaves sank into the brown tea; one leaf remained; on it I sat behind a desk as a lawyer.

These leaves stand for health, wealth, and prosperity for America's leaders.

ACTIVITIES

"THE FUNNY BRATS"

The play "The Funny Brats" was given by the Senior Class in October. It was a three act comedy, telling the story of a young widow and her troubles with her children and her boyfriends.

The young widow, Sylvia Gresham, was played by Earlene Knotts; Tom, her eldest son, Lowell Marshall. Her children, "the two brats," Dick and Harriet, were played by Morlin Dobbs and Pat Rowley.

Mrs. Gresham's boyfriends were Loren, a college professor, played by Charles Taylor; Whaley, a fat, blustery man who smelled like a goat, Jeff Massie.

Aurora, the maid was Patty Starkey; and Don Jeffers played Boogerface, her boyfriend.

Two other characters were Lauralee, Tom's fiancee and Gwynette, played by Mary Snodgrass and Iris Metheney. Aunt Hettie, an old maiden aunt, was played by Iris Cogar.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

A play entitled "It's A Great Life" was given by the Junior Class on February 4, 1956. It was a romantic comedy about the Wilson household which became very confusing when their daughter was involved with three dates to the local club dance.

The dramatic actor of the community play, Mr. Wilson, was played by Eddie McKnight; his wife, a very timid lady, was Patty Smeeks. Barbara McDonald, as Aunt Gertrude, was Mrs. Wilson's sister who practically ran the entire house. Kenny Wines, was Tommy Wilson. Harry Ladd played Ted Stokes, the neighbor boy who sympathized heartily with Mr. Wilson.

Mary Wilson, who had such a mixup with her dates, was played by Mary Ford. Carl Ackley as Wilbert Wiggins, and Joe Bowers as Muscles O'Rourke were two of Mary's three dates. Theresa Grant, a movie actress who played opposite Mr. Wilson in the community play, was Janet Beyler. Isabella Birkbeck was Marie George, Mary's shy friend. Miss Alstead Billings was the interviewer from the Dumb Animals Benefit Society played by Janet Heck.

Betty Murrey was the student director. Mrs. Bonnie Kendall supervised the play.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1952, forty freshmen entered the Troy High School to begin their careers.

The class elected Donna Gillian as President. Our advisors were Mrs. Wines and Mr. Stout. That year we held a weiner roast and a skating party.

In 1953, we returned with thirty-four pupils. We elected Earlene Knotts as President. Our advisor that year was Mr. Frisby. We all took an active part in Glee Club, FFA, FHA and basketball. One of the highlights that year was fixing a Fun Fodder House for the Carnival. Charles Taylor and Mary Snodgrass were our King and Queen. Evelyn Motter was elected Cheerleader that year.

In 1954, we returned for our Junior year. Again we lowered our numbers to twenty-five, but not for long, as we gained four new members; Tom Taylor, Pat Rowley, Marian Smith, and Grace Depoy. We elected Charles Taylor as President. Our advisor this year was Mrs. Kendall. We received our class rings early and worked hard on the Carnival. The King and Queen were Evelyn Motter and Tom Taylor. Our class put on our Junior play, "The Ghose House." Toward the end of the year we gave the Seniors a skating party and one hundred dollars toward their Senior trip. Two Junior girls, Erma Bailey and Evelyn Motter, were elected cheerleaders. On January 20, 1955, Raynol Rossler, one of our classmates, was killed in an accident.

In 1955, twenty-four pupils entered as dignified Seniors, but we soon lost two of them; Dale Welsh and David Gorrell. Then one day we saw a handsome lad wandering around the halls, Morlin Dobbs, who stayed with us. Our class worked very hard to raise money for our Senior trip. We sold necklaces, pins, stationery and put on "The Funny Brats." We elected Jeff Massie as President and our advisor was Mrs. Currey. Our King and Queen elected were Marian Smith and Charles Taylor. Pat Rowley, was elected cheerleader. The boys who played on the varsity basketball team were: Charles Taylor, Dick Holbert, and Ronnie Williams.

As a class, we are sad to leave the halls of Troy High School. We appreciate the guidance our teachers and principal have given us through our years here.

Mary Lou Snodgrass
